Forty-Six U. S. Planes Hover

Over Enemy Target for Word to Release Bombs.

LANGLEY FIELD, HAMPTO.:

Va., July 12.—Despite low-hanging clouds, the army filers took off and flew out to sea today to bomb the former German destroyer G-102. The first flyer left Langley Field at 8:18.

At 9:45 no radio reports had come from the planes, but it was expected that the first attack would occur shortly after 9:30.

The weather at sea was reported fair.

All of the planes designated to take part in the attack had left Langley Field before 9 o'clock.

By International News Service. ON BOARD U. S. S. HENDERSON. OFF THE VIRGINIA CAPES, July orches: 13.-With the gods of war and weather willing, the former German destroyer G-102 will go down to "Davy Jones' Locker" today, the prey of air-Cloudy weather may affect I. Brown stated he believed that such a consolidation would be one of the most effective means of reducing Government expenditures.

Brown said that the reorganization plan will be submitted to Congress within ten days or two weeks. It will have to be approved by the President and his Cabinet before being sent to Congress.
